A BIT OF NEWS

We were glad to have Bonnie Pinnix, Wilburn Mabe, W.A. Conrad, Lee Bailey and Mrs. Frank Bailey with us last Sunday morning as visitors....Harold Doub was absent because of illness....Sis. Nora Holder's mother is ill at Sis. Holder's home.....The Johnsons and Dot Holder returned from lecture week last Saturday afternoon.

GOSPEL SINGING

The gospel singing was here last Sunday afternoon and was well attended. The main body of the auditorium was full. Song leaders participating were Ralph Church, Earnest Shoaf, W. O. Hixson, Burrell Prince, Herman Landroth, A.P. Warner, Harold Binkley, Harmon Caldwell, J. G. Binkley, E. H. Cannon, Jack Bailey, and Max L. Johnson.

We intended to record this service, but the recorder went bad just before we began. We hope to have better luck next time.

Next Lord's Day, the service will be held in Kanapolis. The time is the same...3:00 in the afternoon. Let's all go!

GARY HARPER IS IMMERSED

At the conclusion of the song service last Sunday afternoon, Gary Harper, son of Sis. Nello Harper came forward and made the Good Confession. He was baptized following the evening service. We congratulate him and wish for him a long and useful life in His service.

BINKLEY FUNERAL

The funeral for Andrew Binkley was held at the building here a week ago today. The service was conducted by Bro. Francis Kincl of Warners Chapel and Bro. Forcum of Central in Winston-Salem. Burial was in the Warners Chapel Cemetery. We extend our sympathies to the bereaved.

LOST.....A BOY

Not kidnapped by bandits and hidden in a cave to weep and starve and raise a nation to frenzied searching! Were that the case, one hundred thousand women would rise to the rescue, if need be. Unfortunately, the losing of the lad is without dramatic excitement, though very sad and very bad.

The fact is: his father lost him. Being too busy to sit with him at the fireside and answer his trivial questions during the years when fathers are the only great heroes of the boys, he let go his hold.

Yes, the mother lost him. Being too engrossed in her teas, dinners, and club programs, she let her maid hear the boy say his prayers, and thus her grip slipped. and the boy was lost to his home.

Aye, the Church lost him. Being much occupied with sermons for the wise and elderly who pay bills, and having good care for dignity, the minister and elders were unmindful of human feelings of the boy in the pew, and made no provision in sermon or song or manly sport for his boyishness. And so the Church and many sadhearted parents are now looking earnestly for the lost boy.....
