ANNOUNCEMENT OF GREENSBORO'S MEETING

Following is an announcement of the Gospel Meeting which Greensboro plans, beginning Sunday:

THE CHURCH OF CHRIST - TEACHING THE GOSPEL OF CHRIST!

The Wendover Avenue church of Christ invites and urges you to be present during a series of gospel meetings from Sept. 18 thru 28, with Mr. C. W. Bradley, minister for the church in Rockingham as the preacher. Services will be at 10 A.M. & 7:45 P.M. weekdays and at 11 A.M. & 7:00 P.M. Sundays.

Possibly you have never visited at the church of Christ - if not this is your special invitation to visit in our new building and see for yourself just what the gospel and it only produces in life and in manner of conduct. Certainly the gospel does not teach a wild or boisterous conduct, nor does it cause a high emotionalism - the gospel only produces "deceency and order" - calm, simple meditation and worship from the heart - and calls for obedience from the heart.

The building is on Wendover Ave. at Hill Street. The phone is 2-3741 and we offer our service in helping you attend the meeting. DO COME!

C. R. Franks, Jr.

This editor thought that a copy of his card would announce the meeting better than some copy he might think up.

COME

WEDNESDAY

NIGHT

ANOTHER PREACHER

Another gospel preacher has moved to North Carolina. Bro. Willard Conchin of Sevierville, Tenn. has moved to Mocksville to work with the Jericho congregation.

He came two weeks ago. "Welcome Willard, we needed you!"

SIS. HARPER ILL

Sis. Claudie (Will) Harper is confined to her bed by a severe illness. She is at her home. She requests that we remember her in our prayers.

IT'S A BOY!

Paul and Johnsie Moser are the parents of a boy, born Sept. 1. Their third child and second boy, they named him Michael Gray. Congratulations Paul and Johnsie.

We had two good crowds last Sunday; let's have two good ones next Sunday.

Have you noticed how faithfully those who obeyed the Gospel during the meeting have attended the services; Bible Study and the other services besides the regular worship service? Some of our "more mature (?) " members should take notice.
