SERVICES SUNDAY

10:00 A. M. - - - - - - Bible Study 11:00 A. M. - - - - - - Worship

Services Sunday Nights and Wednesday Nights temporarily discentiated while Brother Johnson is in Greensbore. We certainly miss the presence of Brother and Sister Johnson, and are looking forward to the first of September when they will be back with us.

A WELCOME VISITOR

We were very happy indeed to have Brother Oscar Moser of Texas with us last Sunday. He gave us an interesting lesson on "SPIRITUAL BUILDING". We hope he can visit with us again scon.

"I WAS SICK AND YE VISITED ME"

Let's remember to visit those who are sick: Sister Cartwright and Brother Robah Moser. We are sure they would enjoy your visit.

Our hearts rejoice to see Leroy Warner able to attend services again.

If there are others who are ill kindly advise Mrs. Mary Harper. We would also appreciate any material you might have that could be used in the bulletin.

OUR MEETING

Our Meeting which closed July 14th was a very successful one and we should all be stronger Spiritually than before we heard the fine lessons delivered by Bro. Marlin; also the song service which was so ably led by Bro. Max Johnson, was enjoyed by all and was a great asset to the success of the meeting.

The cooperation and enthusiasm which was manifest at all services was encouraging, but let us determine not to let that interest and enthusiasm die with the passing of our meeting but work with the same zeal throughout the year that we may grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord and show to the world by practice that we firmly believe those things which we teach; then when time comes around for our next meeting, we will be able to accomplish more good than ever before.

The Winston-Salem Congregation showed a wonderful spirit of cooperation during our meeting and some attended every service; also loaned us their song books. We really appreciate this, and we were so glad to have them attend the services. We also appreciate the visitors who came from other places.

Our hearts rejoice that ten young girls obeyed the gospel. May the Lord bless each of them as they go forth in His service, always placing Jesus Christ and His teaching first in their lives knowing that we can cast all our cares upon him and he will care for us if we remain faithful to Him.
